Langbaine appears to have possessed an edition of this play printed in 4to in 1594. "This play says he) was first printed 4to Lond. 1594, and acted by the Earls of Darby, Pembroke and Essex, their servants." Doubtless he had it before him. The description of the Company is the same, but the date laid is different from the enumeration of the edit. in 1600 and that at the head of A2 recto. Coll.

In the year 1800, a copy of this play, printed in 1600, was discovered in the Duke of Bridgewater's Library at Ashridge, which has been since removed to London. I have collated the present copy with it, and the variations are set down. No other copy of the edition of 1600, except this of the D. of B's, is known to exist, nor was it ever seen by any of the editors of Shakspeare before 1800.

The title of the edition of 1600, which is in 4to, is as follows:

The most lamentable Romaine Tragedie of Titus Andronicus.

As it hath sundry times beene playde by the Right Honourable the Earle of Pembrooke, the Earle of Darbie, the Earle of Sussex, and the Lorde Chamberlaine theyr Servants.
